Looking back ~ Moving forward...

When looking back on the past year, the positive impact our club offers this community is really quite amazing. All of the fun and memorable experiences, coupled with the club's charity efforts, shows significant results that we can all be proud of. It proves how partnering with friends like Glanbia, Habitat for Humanity, The Red Cross and so many more, can be the recipe for success. As always my favorite ventures are the ones we sponsor as a club: Empty Bowls, the summer concert and our Christmas party were all phintastic parties with good friends and great music that ended with the chosen charitable causes expressing their appreciation of how we Party With A Purpose.

My list of favorite 2012 memories includes being part of Tropical Rock History when Jimmy Buffet and the Coral Reefers came to Idaho! Of the 15 times I have seen them, this was definitely the BEST! The intimate atmosphere of the Taco Bell Arena, made even better by being surrounded with friends from both of Idaho's PHC's; well it just doesn't get better than that. Here's to hoping that they return in 2013!

SIPHC members hosted a handful of great musicians at house concerts too. I think you will all agree that this is a great way to become acquainted with the artists as they travel through the northwest, and I hope you are looking forward to summer and more of the same as much as I am. This year holds promise of so much fun and adventure...Phins to the West is just around the corner (if you have yet to register you better hurry up and get it done! www.phinstothewest.com) as well as a whole summer of parrothead socials and community involvement.

All of this would not be possible without you, the members of SIPHC. Membership and growth, along with a dedicated few to oversee and perpetuate the clubs activities, will ensure the health and success of what started just a few years ago with a mere 10 members!

Cheers to another year of parrothead phun!
